

Salute to NASA Night

Houston Astros Salute/Honor the Communities of East Texas and the Columbia Recovery Efforts

Houston Astros vs. Milwaukee Brewers
Thursday, July 3 @ 6:05 p.m.

During the pre-game ceremonies of the annual NASA night with the Astros, city and county representatives of the many East Texas communities who were integral in the recovery process of Columbia STS-107 will be recognized. Additionally, Kent Rominger, Chief of the Astronaut Office will throw out the ceremonial first pitch.

Take advantage of Special 1/2 Price Tickets!

ALL employees, their families, friends and patrons

Field Boxes $15 • Bullpen Boxes $10

Mezzanine $7.50 • View Deck $6

Gates open at 4:35 p.m. Parking is Not Included

ORDER by July 2nd ONE OF TWO WAYS

FOR TICKET PURCHASES OF 19 OR LESS:

• Log on to www.tickets.com/astros_B2B_spacelight. Your password is astrosnasa. After making your ticket selection, choose your method of delivery from the options offered "on-line." Convenience and handling fees will apply to all on-line orders.

INTERNET ORDER DEADLINE: July 2, 2003. Print and save your confirmation notice.

• To avoid any convenience and service charges, present this flyer between now and game time at the Minute Maid Park Box Office, located on Texas Avenue. Non-game day hours are 8:30-5:30 weekdays and 9-3 Saturdays or call (713) 259-8500.

This offer cannot be combined with another. All ticket sales subject to availability. Times and dates subject to change.